Mood and magnitude

Welcome to a palace in the Atlantic ocean that has much more to offer than sumptuousness and grandeur. Here lay all our treasures brought together from our garden island and from beyond the ocean, waiting to be shared with you.

The Savoy Palace is a story waiting for yours.

The setting is inspired by this unique time when new artistic currents, cosmopolitanism and fun came together – the Belle Époque. While the atmosphere is no less than a magical interpretation of the luxuriant nature and cultural richness of Madeira island.

A nostalgic mise-en-scène? On the contrary, the real feel is of a timeless classic hotel with the ultimate indulgence experience.

Designing sensations

In this story, the Savoy Palace's ambience is much more than a collection of elements influenced by the island. The interior design is inspired by the old native traditions of embroidery, the wickerwork and the Madeira wine, by the ingenious landscape interventions of the ancient irrigation channels and tunnels, all of it surrounded by the exuberant Laurissilva forest.

This feast for the senses set in a superior 5-star hotel was imagined by one of the most prestigious interior designers in the world: Nini Andrade Silva in partnership with RH+ architects.

Every detail is infused with a keen sense of elegance and a unique personality. The furniture, all the objects and ornaments were created exclusively for the Palace to harmonize with the light colours, organic shapes and comfortable materials, bringing this Atlantic fable to life.

Accommodating your dream

More than a place to stay, we welcome you to a palace to dream in. The 352 well-appointed and elegantly furnished rooms and suites have areas ranging from 40 to 260 sq. m, characterized by an exclusive and refined decor, where quality and detail come to the fore. There is a variety of suites, 14 with plunge pools and, of course, 1 presidential suite with an indoor/outdoor swimming pool.

All our superior accommodation features an ample balcony opening to a stunning view over the Atlantic ocean. The opulent Pool Ocean Suites host a panoramic wraparound balcony with a private plunge pool.

These dreams only need you here to be real.
